- are being used for solid waste disposal or recycling and are located only on a commercial or industrial property
- are located on properties in the Planned Industrial Zone that provide contract construction services
- are located on properties in Planned Industrial Zone that retail or wholesale farm products that are harvested (straw, hay, or like products, etc.)
- are located on properties that have an active construction or reconstruction project and only during the term of such construction
- are located on bona fide farms that are regulated by Sections 7.2.a and 7.2.b of these regulations
- are located adjacent to Town-owned athletic fields and are utilized for the storage of athletic equipment

Any storage containers that do not meet one of the above-listed standards shall be permanently removed from the subject property not later than 7 years following adoption of this regulation. In order to maintain a storage container as a legal nonconforming use during this phase-out period, a registration form shall be completed at the Town Building Official's Office no later than 90 days following adoption of this regulation. Any storage containers not registered within this time frame shall be deemed in violation of this regulation and shall be subject to enforcement action by the Town.

For the purposes of this regulation, a storage container is defined as a portable enclosure that is mounted, or can be mounted on wheels or can be transported over a public highway that is utilized for the storage of goods only.

7.2 Accessory Uses & Structures Associated With Principal Farming Uses In Any Zone.

- a. Permitted Accessory Uses and Structures. Farm markets, buildings or structures used for the storing, processing and manufacturing of agriculture and forestry products produced on the farm, necessary motor vehicles and equipment used on the farm, and the buildings or structures used for the storage of such vehicles and equipment, and buildings used for the housing of farm animals and poultry.
- b. Location. All buildings and structures containing livestock of poultry shall be located a minimum distance of one hundred (100) feet from any street line or the property line of any property under separate ownership. All other accessory buildings and structures associated with the principal farming uses shall conform to the required side, rear and front yards for that zone. AMENDED EFFECTIVE JUNE 13, 1975.
- c. Farm Market. The intent of this section shall be to continue and promote the orderly growth of farming in Glastonbury in accordance with Section 12 of these Regulations. Farm markets shall be located on the premises of a farm. They shall be located a minimum distance of twenty-five (25) feet from any street line and one hundred (100) feet from any street or road intersection. Such farm market shall also meet the side yard requirements for a principal building for the zone in which it is located. Any enlargement or alteration of an existing farm market shall be deemed a minor change as defined in Section 12.9. New farm markets shall be subject to Section 12 of this Regulation and shall sell only perishable items (such as fruits and vegetables) some of which must be grown on the premises of the farm. The addition of non-perishables to a new farm market shall be subject to Special Permit in accordance with Section 12.9 of these Regulations.

Farm markets registered with the Office of Community Development (as of June 30, 1981) shall be considered conforming uses as shown and defined in the application form approved by the Town Plan and Zoning Commission as a Special Permit. AMENDED EFFECTIVE MAY 30, 1981.

7.3 Accessory Uses And Structures Associated With Excavation Operation In Any Zone

Any accessory use or structure associated with excavation operation in any zone shall abide by the conditions set forth in Section 6.2 of these Regulations.

7.4 Principal Non-Residential Uses, Except Excavation Operations, In Residence Zone

Any accessory use or structure associated with any principal non-residential uses in the residence zone (excepting excavation operations) shall abide at a minimum by the requirements set forth in this Section 7 for residential accessory uses and structures and, in addition, to any other conditions which may be required in their review of the principal use by the Town Plan and Zoning Commission or Zoning Board of Appeals, whichever the case may be, because of the nature of such accessory use or structure and the principal use with which it is associated.

7.5 Non-Residence Zones

Any accessory use or structure associated with any principal use in the non-residence zones shall be subject to such conditions as may be required in their review of the principal use by the Town Plan and Zoning Commission or the Zoning Board of Appeals, whichever the case may be, because of the nature of such accessory use or structure and the principal use with which it is associated.

7.6 Attached Accessory Building Or Structure

Any accessory building or structure attached or connected to the principal building by walls or roofs shall be considered a part of such principal building and shall abide by the provisions for principal buildings for the zone in which it is located.

7.7 Height Of Accessory Building Or Structure

Any accessory building or structure, except as provided in Section 3.5 of these Regulations, exceeding a height of fifteen (15) feet shall be considered as a principal building or structure and shall abide by the provisions for principal buildings for the zone in which it is located.

7.8 Accessory Fences And Walls

Accessory fences and walls used as fences with a maximum height of four (4) feet or less, shall be exempt from the provisions of this Section 7 except as may be otherwise required by the Town Plan and Zoning Commission or Zoning Board of Appeals, whichever the case may be.

7.9 Review And Approval

Whenever a principal use or structure is subject to the review and approval of the Town Council, the Town Plan and Zoning Commission or the Zoning Board of Appeals, whichever the case may be, any accessory use or structure associated with such principal use or structure shall be subject to the same review and approval.

7.10 Use

No accessory building or structure shall be used for residential, living or cooking purpose except as provided in these Regulations.

7.11 Agribusiness – Special Permit

a. Purpose:

The Town of Glastonbury recognizes that the preservation and support of the limited amount of agricultural lands and business is important to the Town, the State and the Nation, and is also necessary for the provision of adequate, healthful and nutritious foods for present and future citizens. It is also recognized that the survival and process of development of agricultural operations usually requires that several farms be operated or managed as one, and thus the farming activities on one property may be directed from a central office located on another. Therefore, it is the purpose of this regulation to permit the Town Plan and Zoning Commission to grant a Special Permit with Design Review for the construction of, addition to and/or renovation of non-farm buildings on properties where a farm operation is a permitted use under these Regulations.

b. Standards:

The construction of, addition to and/or renovation of non-farm buildings shall be subject to a Special Permit with Design Review in accordance with the criteria established by Section 12 of these Regulations. Non-farm buildings shall include all customary accessory buildings for hatching, breeding, rearing and keeping of poultry/animals; research and development activities related thereto; office and similar uses related to the farm operation; and storage and maintenance of equipment.

Buildings shall meet the yard requirements for a principal building for the zone it is located within and lots shall contain a minimum of fifty (50) acres. Buildings shall not cover more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the property.

c. Duration:

A special permit granted under this Section 7.11 shall be valid only for so long as the use permitted thereby remains related and accessory to an existing farm operation being conducted on the same parcel.

d. Separability:

This regulation shall not supersede or replace the farm-related portions of the existing regulations; and the expansion of farming as presently controlled shall continue under the existing regulations. All farm expansion purely limited to farm operations occurring on said farm shall continue to be a permitted use under existing regulations. EFFECTIVE DATE MAY 8, 1989.
